Description: December was a productive month and so the second installment of demos for the next Pere Ubu album, "Lady From Shanghai," appears sooner than anticipated. Click here for the first set. These mp3 files include lyrics should your player be able to read them. These songs are somewhere between demos and works-in-progress. They are far from completed. They are at the place where the ideas are coalescing. They will continue to evolve as instruments, parts and ideas are added and fleshed out. The titles are working titles and so they may or may not change.
